Cells R Us Scenario and Rubric - BetterLesson

Cells are called the "building blocks" of life. Adults have about ten trillion (10,000,000,000,000) cells in their bodies! Your body was made when one tiny cell from your father joined another tiny cell from your mother. These two cells became one very special cell, and that very special cell became you! 2 That very special cell had all the information and "secret codes" to make you the way you are.
