What a way to ring in the millennium. In "Hanging on to Max", Margaret Bechard is trying to get a point across to teens. Like the other five novels Bechard has written, she is trying to show teens that engaging in premarital sex has its consequences.

Hanging on to Max - East Baton Rouge Parish Library

However, Hanging Onto Max is the old story with a new twist: Sam Pettigrew is a teenaged father. He took custody of his son at age sixteen, when the boy's mother decided she could no longer handle the pressures of child care. Sam didn't want to see little Max given away to strangers, but raising him by himself was just as difficult.
