[The Convalescent] (By: Jessica Anthony) [published: July

So, it appears that Jessica Anthony was having so much fun writing her first novel, a zany tale about a sickly Hungarian midget who sells meat out of a bus in field, that she forgot that she would eventually have to end it. And when she realized the 200-plus-page error of her rambling ways, she said to herself "Yeah

THE CONVALESCENT by Jessica Anthony

The Convalescent is that kind of special." —Heidi Julavits "Jessica Anthony has given a voice—wry, sad, and arresting—to the wounded little homunculus that lives, largely ignored, in all of us, a creature that wrestles with a guilt and grief that is as historical as it is personal. The Convalescent is a melancholy delight." —Chris Adrian
